RISING SMART WATER PROFESSIONALS (RISWP) GLOBAL SURVEY 2019

THE SWAN FORUM'S YOUNG PROFESSIONAL NETWORK

Rising Smart Water Professionals (RiSWP) is a group of students and early career professionals (ages 18-35), who are passionate about connecting smart data-driven solutions to modern challenges in the water and wastewater sectors.

visit: www.swan-forum.com/riswp/
Global Reach

85 Responses from 34 countries
Age Range: 19 - 45
Average Age: 30
What are the current and emerging trends that you see in the Smart Water Sector?

• Innovation & Smart Tech: AI, ML, Digital Twin

• Equity & the Environment: climate change, clean drinking water, water shortage/loss, and water and wastewater reuse (from decentralised systems of operations)

• The Power of Data: Big Data, data quality and data analytics

• The Human Factor: education & employment opportunities, new actors in the field, and human openness to innovation
Would you benefit from a mentor in this field?

Yes
88.4%

No
11.6%

If interested in a mentor, what would you be interested in a mentor for?

Learning more about the smart water sector
75%

The job search process
0%
In your opinion, what's missing in the Smart Water sector?